Western Power	If you have a power cut: If our engineers have to enter your home to restore your power, we will first ask if you are self-isolating so we can make relevant arrangements. For homes where people are self-isolating our engineers will wear protective equipment, stay in a different room from people who are infected or self-isolating, and avoid touching surfaces. We are still here 24/7 and there are lots of ways to get in touch with us including our website, power cut reporter app or by ringing 105. For those who are on our Priority Services Register we can offer extra support.
HMRC	HMRC have just set up a helpline to help the self-employed and businesses who will be struggling now due to the corona virus. The hep line is 0300 456 3565. Giving advise on tax and any other benefits you can claim for.
