- a) Hereford in Bloom (HiB) – Councillor Foxtan informed Members that there was a planning meeting on 4 June to discuss the judging tour route of 14 stops taking place on 3 July. A final meeting to tie up loose ends is taking place on 27 June. The Mayor will be meeting the judges. The Administration and Events Manager informed Members she had been in talks with Herefordshire Council and its contractors to try to push back the date of the erection of the scaffolding at the Black and White House, however all they could do was bring it forward, so it was nearer completion and therefore tidier. There was then a discussion about the recent garden party at Blackfriars Rose Gardens with Councillor Andrews conveying Anne Harbour's thanks for HCC's help and funding.

- b) Close House – Councillor Potts informed Members that the Close House Board have been having budget discussions. HCC's service level agreement provides secure funding, which is very helpful, and they are very grateful, however when the HAF programme funding ends, it is looking very bleak. They do a wonderful job and there is positive contribution from their young people so it would be a real shame if cuts have to take place.

- c) Hereford Business Improvement District (HBID) – No report as Councillor Stevens had given apologies.
- d) Stronger Towns Board (STB) – Councillor Proctor informed Members there had been one meeting but nothing to note.
- e) Bishop of Hereford’s Bluecoat School (BHBS) Charity – Councillor Foxtan asked for a substitute for the next meeting on 20 November as she is away. It was proposed by Councillor Hornsey, seconded by Councillor Foxtan and unanimously

RESOLVED That Councillor Kenyon attend as a substitute.

- f) Community Land Trust (CLT) – Councillor Milln thanked the Council for their recent grant, informed Members that the small housing scheme in Barton Road had stalled but they were hoping the importance of affordable housing in the draft Local Plan might help rekindle it.
- g) Hereford Allotment and Leisure Gardeners (HALG) – Councillor Kenyon informed Members that he meets with the Secretary weekly and everything is fine – no news is good news. The Administration and Events Manager informed Council about the works approved recently at Policy and Resources Committee to the fence and toilets.
- h) Hereford Association of Local Councils (HALC) – Councillor Potts informed Members that the next Executive Meeting had been postponed which was a shame as he was hoping to hear about the conference so would chase.
- i) Three Choirs 2025 – Councillor Hornsey informed Members there had been no meetings, however, there would be a preview of the 2025 Hereford festival programme in August.

C2024/25.33 TOWN CLERK’S COMMUNICATIONS

In the Town Clerk’s absence, the Administration and Events Manager reminded Members that the Town Clerk has name badges for all of them and reminded Members to respond to the Freedom Ceremony invitation.
